

blue buckaroo mini aussies pma private members agreement in order to protect all members from any adverse interference or action brought on by local, county, state, or federal regulatory, administrative or licensing agencies, and to receive full benefits from participation in blue buckaroo mini aussies pma private member agreement, (hereafter referred to as pma or agreement) all members consent to the following:

i, _____ (here after referred to as member) agree that i am joining blue buckaroo mini aussies pma; a private member agreement protected under the constitution of the united states of america and the original constitution for these united states of america and the tennessee constitution.

i agree to section 4 through section 14 of the blue buckaroo mini aussies pma articles of agreement as listed following.

section 4. this private members agreement of members hereby declares that our objective is to maintain, improve and protect our basic human rights, constitutional guarantees and political freedom as well as nurture, support and strengthen our relationship with god for every agreement member, american national, breathing and living man or woman of these united states of america and that our rights to form this private members agreement are granted among other things, by the creator and, by the united states constitution, by the tennessee constitution and by common law. this objective also pertains to all law-abiding people of other countries from around the world whose constitutional provisions and faith in god embrace similar rights, freedoms and beliefs as those in these united states of america.

section 5. this private members agreement, stands on the tennessee constitution last revised november 4, 2014. we stand on article i of the declaration of rights, most importantly section 1. that all power is inherent in the people, and all free governments are founded on their authority, and instituted for their peace, safety, and happiness for the advancement of those ends they have at all times, an unalienable and indefeasible right to alter, reform, or abolish the government in such manner as they may think proper. we stand on section 2. the government being instituted for the common benefit, the doctrine of nonresistance against arbitrary power and oppression is absurd, slavish, and destructive of the good and happiness of mankind. we stand on section 3. that all men have a natural and indefeasible right to worship almighty god according to the dictates of their own conscience; that no man can of right be compelled to attend, erect, or support any place of worship, or to maintain any minister against his consent; that no human authority can, in any case whatever, control or interfere with the rights of conscience; and that no preference shall ever be given, by law, to any religious establishment or mode of worship. we stand on section 7. that the people shall be secure in their persons, houses, papers and possessions, from unreasonable searches and seizures; and that general warrants, whereby an officer may be commanded to search suspected places, without evidence of the fact committed, or to seize any person or persons not named, whose offences are not particularly described and supported by evidence are dangerous to liberty and out not be granted. we stand on section 19. that the printing press shall be free to every person to examine the proceedings of the legislature; or of any branch or officer of the government, and no law shall ever be made to restrain the right thereof. the free communication of thoughts and opinions, is one of the invaluable rights of man and every citizen may freely speak, write, and print on any subject, being responsible for the abuse of that liberty. we stand on section 20. that no retrospective law, or law impairing the obligations of contracts, shall be made. we stand on section 21. that no man's particular services shall be demanded, or property taken, or applied to public use without the consent of his representatives, or without just compensation being made therefore. we stand on section 22. that perpetuities and monopolies are contrary to the genius of a free state, and shall not be allowed. we stand on section 23. that the citizens have a right, in a peaceable manner, to assemble together for their common good, to instruct their representatives, and to apply to those invested with the powers of the government for redress of grievances, or other proper purposes, by address of remonstrance. and we stand on section 26. that the citizens of this state have a right to keep and to bear arms for their common defense; this enumeration of rights shall not be construed to impair or deny others, retained by the people. all in line with the constitution of these united states of america and the constitution of the united states of america. this private members agreement is in the private. blue buckaroo mini aussies pma members claim their constitutional rights to meet in the private, their freedom of religion, speech and press, our freedoms from searches and seizures and the right to be secure in our persons, houses, papers and effects, to freely assemble together to counsel for the common good, to make known our opinions, and to have the right to privately contract with one another without interference from local, county, state, LOCAL, COUNTY, STATE OR FEDERAL interference and to have the freedom to include any people into our private members agreement.

section 6. we believe that the first amendment to the constitution: congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press, or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the government for a redress of grievances.; guarantees our members many rights including but not limited to the right to associate in private, the right to free speech, the right to free press, the right to assemble and the right to worship god, the right to share the gospel, the right to encourage one another with biblical love. the right to meet together according to matthew 18:20 for where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am i in the midst of them. we believe this includes the right to gather for the lawful purpose of advising, helping, providing goods and services, and serving one another in our rights in any field of human or godly interest, per the federal and state constitutions and common law as well as following god's law. we believe and stand on the second amendment a well regulated militia, being necessary to the security of a free state, the right of the people to keep and bear arms, shall not be infringed. we believe the 4th amendment of the constitution of the united states of america: the right of the people to be secure in their persons, houses, papers, and effects, against unreasonable searches and seizures, shall not be violated, and no warrants shall issue, but upon probable cause, supported by oath or affirmation, and particularly describing the place to be searched, and the persons or things to be seized.; secures our right of privacy and protection of our persons, houses, papers and effects against searches and seizures, we believe the enumeration of certain rights shall not be construed to deny or disparage others retained by our members per amendment ix; the enumeration in the constitution, of certain rights, shall not be construed to deny or disparage others retained by the people.; and we retain the right to privately contract per article i section 9. no bill of attainder or ex post facto law shall be passed. and section 10 of the constitution of the united states of america.; and section 10. no state shall enter into any treaty, alliance, or confederation; grant letters of marque and reprisal; coin money; emit bills of credit; make any thing but gold and silver coin a tender in payment of debts; pass any bill of attainder, ex post facto law, or law impairing the obligation of contracts, or grant any title of nobility. we therefor stand on silver minted coin to contract with one another, which no government or state can impair.

section 6.1. we believe that each (wo)man is responsible for his or her own beliefs and that any information, products, services, or advice they receive it is up to them in their divine sovereignty to discern the truth for their own peace of mind. each man and woman in their sovereignty is responsible for any decisions made to receive, participate, ingest or receive any goods or services from other members of the blue buckaroo mini aussies pma and take full responsibility for such decisions. all members agree to remain in the private with other members and to never enlist outside litigation, civil courts, or other legal actions outside of the blue buckaroo mini aussies pma.

blue buckaroo mini aussies pma members agree to live and do business in the private exempt from all public civil regulation, courts or mitigations.

section 6.2. we believe in the right to privately contract with one another as sovereign men and women, creations of nature and natures' god. we believe that according to the tennessee constitution article 1 bill of rights section 21 and the federal constitution article i section 9 stating: the privilege of writ of habeas corpus shall not be suspended, unless when in cases of rebellion or invasion the public safety may require it. no bill of attainder or ex post facto law shall be passed. defend, promote and protect this right to privately contract with one another.

section 7. we declare our rights under the constitution of these united states to gather, worship, and operate our agreement in the private jurisdiction and domain, as guaranteed by the 1st congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press, or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the government for a redress of grievances. as guaranteed by the 2nd a well regulated militia, being necessary to the security of a free state, the right of the people to keep and bear arms, shall not be infringed. as guaranteed by the 4th the right of the people to be secure in their persons, houses, papers, and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures, shall not be violated, and no warrants shall issue, but upon probable cause supported by oath or affirmation, and particularly describing the place to be searched, and the persons or things to be seized. as guaranteed by the 9th the enumeration in the constitution of certain rights, shall not be construed to deny or disparage others retained by the people. as guaranteed by the 10th the powers not delegated to the united states by the constitution, nor prohibited by it to the states, are reserved to the states respectively, or to the people. we claim these unalienable rights given in these amendments of the united states constitution as well as to claim dominion over water, air and land as commanded by god in genesis 1:28. and god blessed them, and god said to them, bring forth fruit, and multiply and fill the earth, and subdue it, and rule over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the heaven, and over every beast that moveth upon the earth. all agreement activities are limited to our private agreement members and are in the private domain only.

section 8. we establish this pma on the land that is generally considered to be tennessee state, an independent state of the nation style by these united states of america, without the united states washington d.c. corporation. the pma is not part of, nor does it associate in any way with THE STATE OF TENNESSEE a private for profit corporation, denoted with a dun and bradstreet number #04143882.
